

Emergency Office Assistance

There are times when the paid staff may be unable to perform their duties due to regular leave, emergency leave, appointments, etc.

The Emergency Office Assistant takes the time to learn the Standard Operating Procedures (written and available for study and reference while working) of the Administrative Secretary and fills in as required. This may involve two or three people who are available on-call when their schedules permit.